THE ZIONIST CONGRESS.

Of all the Congresses now being held, says the "Globe" the Zionist meeting has attracted the least notice. Of course, the Peace Conference has drawn the most attention, for several reasons, but even the Esperantist Congress has received more notice than the Jewish gathering. The discussions have shown that there are two distinct parties among the Zionists: the which is the most numerous and possessed of the greatest influence, and the realist, or practical group. The aim of the political Zionists is to obtain the consent of the Powers to the establishment of a Jewish all the scattered Jews as the means of bring ing pressure to bear on the Governments o Europe. The practical Zionists insist that it is no use waiting for a problematical agree ment, but that it is advisable to encourage emigration to Palestine, and to get possession ot land and develop agricultural colonies This view of the case has been pressed on the acting Committee with great vehemence, and the discussions have been exceedingly heated But the outcome of it all is that Zionism seems to have lost ground. The diplomatic or politi cal action has had no results. There are some countries, such as Spain and Morocco, where Zionism is unknown, and where no effort has been made to inspire a national feeling among the Jewish populations. The resources of the Committee are insufficient to carry on the propaganda, and the whole movement seems to have lost its force. It is possible, however, that the lively criticisms which have been directed agaist the leaders will have the effect of reviving the enthusiasm and energy of the Attempted Murder.

A ruffianly Italian, named Mantalupo, on Wednesday tried to murder his mistress in Sharia Luxemburg, whom he had approached disguised as a Bedouin, but fortunately a shawish was close at hand and succeeded in effecting his arrest. Mantalupo has been hand ed over to his Consulate.

The Catacloum, which can be best described as an Alexandrian chat noir de Paris, continues to attract a considerable number of people. Many of the songs, which are chiefly local and topical, such as humorous verses about the crisis, the director of Egypt's three notorious newspepers, and other public nuisan ces are most cleverly composed and very well

A serious accident, which resulted in the death of a young man belonging to one of the best known Cairo native families, took place on Wednesday night, on the road to the Pyramids. Mohamed Aly Shawki, son of Shawki Bev. had invited two friends among whom was the son of Ooff Pasha, for a ride in his automobile, driven by a native chauffeur. They were going at a good speed, when they hit against one of the tramway poles. The proprietor, a friend and the chauffeur jumped from the motor and escaped without serious injury. Unfortunately Ooff Bey was overturned and killed immediately. The motor was completely destroyed, and an enquiry has been opened to establish the responsibility.

A fire broke out on Wednesday about 7.30 p.m. in the house of Erian Bey Chatby, Cairo. known as the "Hotel du Transvall." The apartment in which the fire occurred was as the proceeds of the cotton, and as much, or cupied by Mme St. Martin, and let as furnished rooms. The berberin servant first discovered the smoke, and gave the alarm to his mistress. When she arrived the fire had already caught the wood partitions separating the rooms, and had penetrated to the salon. The lodgers, for the most part ladies, were absent and the affrighted landlady rushed into the street crying help. The fire brigade was informed and soon arrived on the scene. With considerable difficulty the fire was got under hand and for two hours the men laboured. drenching the place to prevent spreading. Nearly all the furniture was burnt or destroyed, and a number of the lodgers lost their dresses and jewels. The damages are said to be about £350.

UNITED EGYPTIAN SALT LIMITED.

Referring to the notice contained in our issue of the 12th inst. we understand that the above Company has been, or is about to be formed for the purpose of carrying out the contracts recently entered into with the Salt and Soda Company; the Port Said Salt Association; and the Egyptian Markets, Limited.

The Salt and Soda Company and the Salt Association have agreed to co-operate in the formation of the intended new company with the intention that the principal objects of the intended new company shall be, first, the acquisition from the Salt and Soda Company of the benefit of the contracts with the Egyptian Government except so far as concerns the working of the salines therein mentioned and secondly, the acquisition of the exclusive right to purchase for resale and consumption in Egypt the salt produced by the Salt and Soda ompany and the Salt Association respec

The Salt and Soda Company are entitled to the benefit of certain contracts dated respectively the 31st day of December 1905 and the 8th Day of May 1906 made between the Egyptian Government and the Salt and Soda Company relating to the sale of salt in Egypt. The Salt and Soda Company are also the owners of a Concession from the Egyptian Government dated the 2nd day of January 1901, as modified by agreement dated 13th March 1905 for the exclusive right to import into and sell in Egypt powder, saltpetre, and smokeless powder.

From the 1st day of October next the Mar kets have undertaken the exclusive agency for the sale of the products of the Salt and Soda Company and the Port Said Salt Association. The Markets are to receive a commission of 2 per cent on the total amount received from the sale of all the industrial products of the Salt and Soda Company, except soap, and on this latter they are to receive a commission of 21 per cent on the total amount received by the Markets for the sale of soap.

On powder the Markets are to receive a ommission of 4 per cent on the total amount

As regards the sale of salt, the Markets are have the exclusive Agency for this also, and are to receive a sum equivalent to 11 per cent on the amount of salt sold.

We understand that the shares of the United Egyptian Salt, Limited will be issued as fully paid, and that the Salt and Soda Company will take one half, and the Port Said Salt Association the other, the object of this intermediate Company being to simplify a somewhat complicated transaction. Last years salt returns throughout Egypt amounted to about 120,000 tons; of this about 85,000 tons were produced by the Salt and Soda Company, 16,000 tons by the Port Said Salt Association, and the remainder by the Damietta Salines. As regards the Markets, assuming that the next years sales amount to only 90,000 tons at Piastres 180 per ton, the Markets would receive a gross sum of between £17,000 and £18,000 under the arrangement above referred o. To this sum must be added the amounts for commission which the Markets may receive on the sale of soap, powder and other products of the Salt and Soda Company.

THE EGYPTIAN SITUATION.

A propos of the difficulties which have lately made themselves felt in Egypt the 'Globe" states that there is a growing disposition on the part of many students of the situation to believe that the worst is over in Egypt, and that matters are likely to mend before long. For the present, of course, stagnation prevails. It is when the time comes to move the crops that matters are expected to wake up again. This process will necessitate a considerable export of gold to Egypt, an export so large that it is not likely to be without its effect upon home monetary conditions. Cotton is the basis of Egyptian pros perity, and the coming crop promises well. Last year, it is believed, as much as £25,000,000 found its way into the pockets of the fellaheen more will gravitate in the s direction this year. Unfortunately, the fellaheen stolidly retuse to place this money in circulation. A large proportion of it is buried or by the sudden demise of those who have carefully stored it, deliberately refraining from giving any relative the slightest hint as to its whereabouts. Lord Cromer did his best to induce natives to place their money with the banks; but thousands of them have not as yet got rid of the old habits of their forefathers. One thing seems likely, and that is that although general condiin Egypt may shortly be expected to show improvement, the measure of that improvement will not be sufficiently great to warrant a resumption of those industrial flotations so many of which were launched by European financiers last year with such a problematical chance of earning returns for shareholders

CYPRUS TRADE.

WINE GROWING.

Amongst the most important products of the island of Cyprus, which are mostly agricultural (viz-barley, wheat, oats, caroubs, silk, olives, cotton, aniseed, linseed and hemp) one of the chief is the grape. The culture of the vine has been conducted in the island from the earliest times (the wines of Cyprus enjoyed great repute in the days of the Romans, amongst whom they were in constant use). In later days, however, when the island came under Turkish rule, for neafly three hundred years. little was heard of them, and much of the island that was formerly under vine culture was allowed to run to waste. A further blow was given to the island in the early nineties when the French, who had formerly taken the bulk of the Cyprus products, imposed a prohibitive import duty. However since the British occupation efforts have been made, especially of late years, to increase the wine production, and on our recent visit to the island we were shewn over the largest winery; established by an English syndicate at Perapedhi. It is situated about half way between Limassol and Troodos on the military road. This winery is laid out on the most scientific and modern lines' and equipped with the most up to date plant for the production of high class wines; its annual production is between 100,000 and 150,000 gallons of wine. Here various types of wine are made which compare favourably with those of the better known wine producing countries Sufficient capital has been provided to allow of the wines and brandy being thoroughly well matured before being put on the market.

The chief types of wine produced at this inery are Cyprus port and Cyprus burgundy which have both been well received in England and we may mention "Vino de Pasto" a charming white wine of sherry character and 'Commanderia" a fine rich dessert wine, in addition to these "Cyprus Madeira" and "Cyprus Marsala" have proved to be quite excellent.

We learned here that it was with the vines of Cyprus that Madeira was replanted after the destruction of its vineyards in 1858. So far Cyprus has not been afflicted with that terrible scourge the phylloxera which has so affected other countries. Thanks to prohibitive legislation the importation of vines from other ountries has been stopped, and it is to be hoped that owing to this, Cyprus will be spared the ravages of this pest.

In conjunction with this winery at Peraedhi there is also a distillery equipped with four stills and all requisite plant for making brandy. This brandy compares very favourably with that of the Charente districts in France and has already become popular in England.

The total production of the island is between three and three and a half million gallons annually, the majority being common native wines, both red and white, which are chiefly exported to Egypt. Most of this wine is made the peasant proprietors who till their vineyards with the aid of their wives and children and although cultivating, as some suppose, their vineyards in a careless manner hey seem to be fairly successful. The trouble arises when vineyards are sequestrated or left uncared for thro' want of funds or some other cause and thus become centres for the spreading of various diseases. It is essential that the vineyards should be ploughed twice annually but a third ploughing will more than repay the proprietor for his additional labour.

The villagers on the whole are intelligent and willing to learn modern practice, and the efforts of the agricultural department by instructing them in these improved methods, and the help given by the importati n and sale of sulphur at less than cost price in order to aid the inhabitants to ombat the oidium have materially assisted in the progress of cultivation.

The chief centres of production are in the Limassol district viz., Vassa, Kilani, Omodhos, Mandria' Potamiou, Platras, Pe rapedhi, Vouni, Lophos and Arsos

AMERICAN COTTON REPORT.

UNFAVOURABLE FOR SPECULATION

Under date of the 21st inst. Messrs. Reynolds and Gibson report that cable advices to hand on that date were of a bearish nature. They state that rains are reported in many sections in the Southwest and that more is predicted. The opening was quiet at 1 point decline, but there was rather a nervous undertone to the market. We soon eased off a couple of points on a little selling by houses with American connections. At midday the market was dull 21 decline.

During the early afternoon we eased slightly from these prices and when later on New York sent us a quiet opening we forther eased here, 5 points decline being touched.

The market at this time looked rather poor, but when later on no selling developed, the jobbers who were running short, were forced to cover and this soon steadied up the market, We finally closed firm at about the best of the day | point decline. New York. Chapman Setter and Allan. Showers Abilene Littlerock meridian.

The same firm also favours us with the ollowing cotton reports from America:-

NEW YORK. S. GRUNER AND Co. August 9th. Financial conditions are certainly not of a nature to favor speculation just now and as regards the cotton crop the prospect with the exception of Texas appears to be most flattering. Due allowance should also be made for exaggeration in Texas. It is quite certain that ecounts from that state are by no means unanimous about the damage done. It is also the fact that the drought does not extend over the whole state, and furthermore such weather as Texas is having may be a little severe, but, is nevertheless seasonable in August. Upon the whole therefore, we look upon the crop prospect as favorable and the chances still good for a very good yield.

NEW YORK. A NORDEN AND Co. August 9th. Regarding the crop outlook, the attention of the trade is directed almost entirely to the situation in Texas, where there has been no relief from the long period of dry and hot weather. The small and backward condition of the plant makes it all the more liable to serious damage from this source, and unless the drought is broken in the near future, serious deterioration of the crop in South and Southwest Texas seems inevitable. NEW-YORK, MOHR HANEMANN & Co August 9th.

There appears to be no demand worth mentioning from outside sources. Expectation that general speculative demand would set in, will apparently have to be given up for the present. The outlook is, that we shall have to await further weather conditions, and the attitude of the South regarding the offerings and prices asked when the new crop commences to move. It is thought that the demand from spinners then will show how great their needs are, and their determination to lose no time in supplying their wants to their full ability, which will impart the strength and confidence necessary to induce the public to become largely interested.

The trade reports from nearly everywhere are to the same purpor t, a continued large demand for goods, not only for the late delivery, but far into the future, contracts have been made for the late deliveries, based on considerably higher prices for cotton than are now ruling.

NEW ORLEANS, C.P. ELLIS & Co. AUGUST 9th The principal short interest has remained immovable until to day, when the buying of upwards of 100,000 bales of winter months for this account was one of the conspicuous characteristics of the trading. Those who have been resisting daily bear attacks for some time past appear to have taken advantage of this demand to lighten or aban don their holdings, but the general market continues to display a condition of inherent merit which is not at all surprising when contrasted to the amazing prices being paid for early receipts of new cotton, for imme diate use. Of course, the removal or reduction of so extensive a short interest cannot be regarded as strengthening the tech nical position, but at the same time liquidation has been simultaneously extensive, and the situation is therefore a healthy one. Rains in Texas would in all liklihood The extraordinary meeting of the Share-precipitate a break because of liquidation by smaller holders who are long on the droughty conditions, but on any substantial depression so created, we would again favor considering and if thought fit of passing the purchases until Europe evinces a disposition to resist the advance, because of restricted trade demand, which is not now manifest NEW ORLEANS. H. & B. BEER & Co. August 10th. The fine dry weather during June was inst what was desired, but as it continued dry during most of July the crop was left in danger of serious injury from August drought, which now seems to have developed. The most unfavorable feature in connection adjourned. Much comment was made at the with this unusually long period of fair weather has been the high temperature, this being the 18th, day of abnormal heat, the average maximum ranging from 96 @ 98 degrees with but one exception when it was lowered to 94. The Southwestern portion of the state, formerly the most favored section of the belt this season, was the first to complain; then the drought area extended to the central counties, and now August 8 accepted, September Fayoumi sold the more northern districts are being at 7/ 16s 3d, 15th Oct. is 7/ 10s, October 7/ 6s threatened. The supposition is that this is the most unfavorable development that could have overtaken the crop, as owing to its lateness it is in a critical condition, and unless beneficial rains make their appearance the coming week prices are apt to seek a still higher level, although dangerously high already.

MUNICIPALITE D'ALEXANDRIE

D'après le nouvesu règlement, le Com du Tanzim de la ville d'Alexandrie dera co titué définitivement comme suit : Président : l'Administrateur de la Municipalité, ou son remplaçant; membres : deux conseillers élus chaque unnée au sein de la Commission Municipale ; l'Ingénieur en chef de la ville ; un ingénieur délégué par le Ministère des travaux publics ; l'imp sanitaire de la ville d'Alexandrie; du service du Tanzim, faisant fonction

Le Conseil du Tanzim se réuniga en séance ordinaire tous les 15 jours, au moins, au siège de la Municipalité et extraordinaire ment toutes les fois que le Président le jugera opportun. Le dit Conseil aura pour mission

3. de proposer à l'Administration Municipale toutes expropriations, pour l'ouvert rede l'élar

4. de fixer la distance des plantations hodant les voies publiques.

5. de modifier, ou rectifier les alignements 6. de prendre des arrêtés concernant la démolition ou la réparation des édifices en mauvais état au point de vue de la sécurité des habitants. D'après le nouveau règlement, les nouvel rues à créer doivent avoir au moins une lar geur de 8 mètres. Les anciennes rues existant avant une largeur de moins de 6 mètres, de vront être portées à une largeur minima de 6 mètres ; les alignements existants de ces rues seront donc modifiés pour être mis, en vigueur an fur et à mesure de la reconstitation de maisons les bordant.

Le rivage de la mer, depuis le village Dekhela, jusques et y compris le village de Mandarah, devra être relevé et une rue de 30 m. y sera tracée et derrétée d'utilité publique, sauf pour les parties de ce littoral pées par l'Administration des Porte et de Douanes, et les parties où il existe deià des rues légalement approuvées. La ligne de dé marcation entre cette rue du rivage et les propriétés la joignant, sera déterminée sur ple par des bornes en maconnerie et en fer, en par tonte autre réparation que la Municip jugera opportune

Nous détachons aussi ce passage du nouveau réglement concernant les maisons en manyais

Art. 7. Le Conseil du Tanzim doit, sur les apports présentés par les ingénieurs municipaux, visiter les édifices signalés comme mepaçant la sécurité publique et ordonner la démolition ou la réparation de ces édifices, sui-

Ces mesures doivent être prises indistincte ment pour les facades des édifices donnant sur des voies publiques ou sur des rues privées, ainsi que sur la demande des întéressés pour les constructions intérieures de ces édifices.

L'art 12 concernant les expropriations dit: A défaut d'arrangement amiable entre l'Administration et le propriétaire, sur le montant de l'indemnité, le prix est réglé, pour les indigènes, conformément à la loi sur les expropriations, et pour les étrangers d'après une expertise judiciaire. Le nouveau règlement comprend également une excellente mesure au sujet des échafau-dages. Les accidents si fréquents qui se produisent par suite des mauvaises conditions de solidité des échafaudages déciderent pro bablement les agents de la Manicipalité à la faire observer. Voici ce que dit l'art. 33, à ce sujet :

Les échafaudages deviont présenter toutes les conditions voulues de solidité, afin d'éviter tons les accidents.

La Municipalité aura le droit de suspendre toute construction dont les échafaudages lui parattraient manquer de solidité.

Les agents chargés de constater les contra ventions sont:

1. L'Ingénieur en chef de la ville. 2. Le chef du service du Tanzim.

3. Les ingénieurs du Tanzim.

Mais ce qu'il y a de plus intéressant dans ce nouveau r'glement, ce sont les nouvelles taxes et droits imposés par la Municipalité.

Outre les droits du Tanzim en général, en réclamera pour toute demande de roks moment de la remise et avant toute instruction. un droit fixe de 20 P.T.

Il y aura, en outre, des taxes pour la cons truction des murs de clôture, des grilles ou des palissades, pour les travaux de réparation, pour une autorisation de démolition, etc. Les échafauds volants seront taxés. (Aujourd'hui à 11h. 1/2 a.m.).

La séance de ce matin n'a rien eu de re marquable sinon la raréfaction à peu prè complète des affaires. Il y a bien eu des demandes et des offres, mais sans autre résultat que de déterminer des écarts dans la cote. Quelques échanges ont cependant été effectués en Agricole, Delta Land et Estates. Quant à la demande, elle a porté sur l'Union Foncière, les Lots Turcs, et la Sidi Salem. Celle ci était recherchée à 21/4.

Parmi les valeurs dirigeantes, l'Agricole est revenue de 8 3/16 acheteurs à 8 3/16 vendeurs, la National Bank de 20 5/16 à 20 1/4, la Delta Light de 9 3/8 à 9 5/16 et l'Obligation nouvelle Crédit Foncier de 256'à 255. Il est probable que le léger recul constaté à Londres sur ces titres a été pour quelque chose dans leur fléchissement. La National Bank et l'Agricole, entre autres, perdent 1/8 au Stock Exchange.

En baisse également les Dividendes Tram ways d'Alexandrie de 301 à 298, les Cotton Mills de 2/3 à 2, la Cassa di Sconto de 43 à 42, les Estates de 11/16 acheteurs à 11/16 sec, le Comptoir de 2 21/32 à 2 19/32 l'ancienne action et de 2 11/16 à 2 5/8 la nouvelle, et la Building Lands de 2 5/16 à 2 1/4.

Les Lots Turcs ont, au contraire, bénéficié de 1 franc à 159, la Banque d'Athènes de 50 centimes à 110 /2 l'Ordinary Khedivial Mail de 3 pence à 21/3, l'Union Foncière de 1/16 à 4 11/16 et la fondateur United de 1/8 à 2.

On voit que toutes ces fluctuations n'ont pas grande importance et de plus qu'elles sont limitées à un nombre excessivement restreint de valeurs. Il y avait déjà quelque temps que nous n'avions eu une séance aussi dénuée d'intérêt à tous les points de vue.

L'assemblée des actionnaires de la Bourse and Banking, qui était convoquée hier aprèsmidi, à l'effet de prononcer la liquidation volontaire de la société, n'a pu avoir lieu faute du quorum requis des actions représentées. L'ouverture a eu lieu à 4 h. 1/2 p.m. M. Maroni prenant la parole: "L'Assemblée d'auiourd'hui, a-t-il dit, ne peut pas avoir lien et est renvoyée à Jeudi 5 Septembre, car suivant l'art. 66 de nos statuts l'Assemblée ne peut être valable faute de quorum, et suivant l'art. 67 la prochaine assemblée sera valable n'importe quel nombre d'actions seront représentées." On s'attend à ce que cette prochaine assemblée soit très mouvementée et que des questions brûlantes soient posées aux administrateurs sur les détails de leur gestion.

NOTES ET CRITIQUES

Le Caire, Jeudi 29 Août. Le taux de l'escompte libre à Londres es renseigné invarié à 4 3/8 pour cent.

Au Stock Exchange, le Consolidé anglais haussé hier encore de 1/4 à 82/3/4. L'Unifiée a gardé son cours de la veille à 100 1/2. La National Bank a été soutenue à 20 3/8, l'Agricole à 8 3/8 et la Delta Light à 9 1/2. La Daïra Bourse and Banking Company of Egypt Ltd a rétrogradé de 1/8 à 12 5/8. A Paris, le Crédit Foncier Egyptien a perdu changés à 165.

Ici, la séance, sans être mauvaise, a été do minée par les réalisations que la hausse d'hier devait forcément amener. Le marché a donc été un peu faible, et, comme les acheteurs n'étaient pas très nombreux, la cote présente un leger tassement.

Il faut noter cependant que les vendeurs n'étaient pas décidés à liquider à n'importe quel prix et qu'ils n'ont lâché leurs paquets qu'à des cours en somme très soutenus. Cela n'exclut, d'ailleurs pas, la possibilité d'une ac centuation de la reprise, les nouvelles d'Europe restant excellentes pour nos valeurs et la situation du marché monétaire international se présentant sous un jour un peu meilleur.

Dans le compartiment des Banques, la Na tional Bank se tasse à 20 1/4 de même que l'Agricole à 8 1/8-3/16. La Cassa di Sconto reprend à 40-41. Le Comptoir Financier est mieux tenu à 2 5/8 1/16. La Delta Light recule à 9 3/8.

La Daïra Sanieh remonte à 12 1/2. Les obli gations anciennes du Crédit Foncier sont moins soutenues à 303 et les nouvelles à 256. L'Allotment est ramenée à 2 7/16. L'Enterprise and Development continue sa hausse à 8 1 2. Les Entreprises Immobilières et Travaux de plus en plus recherchées haussent de 1/4 à 2 13/16 et leur part se consolide à P.T. 48. Les Héliopolis sont en progrès à 247. Les Wardan Estates s'affaissent à 4 et les Omnibus Automobiles s'alourdissent à 2 1/2, tandis que leur part est inscrite à 3 (nominal).

Dans le groupe des Hôtels, les Baehler sont réalisés à 6 1/16-1/8. Les Nungovich retrogradent de 1/4 à 14.

Parmi les patites valeurs, la Delta Land ne peut maintenir son avance d'hier et fléchit à 1 15/16. Les Estates reviennent à 0 11/16. Les Cotton Mills tombent à 2/. Les Egyptian Constructions sont ramenées à 0 1/2 et les Ordinary Khedivial Mail mollissent à 20/6.

Nous détachons de notre correspondance de Londres en date du 24 Août, les passages suivants :

"Notre marché est resté pendant les pre miers jours de la semaine très indécis avec alternative de hausse et de baisse. Néanmoins, les dispositions paraissaient beaucoup plus favorables, le bluff américain perdant sa puissance à mesure que les événements montrent le but politique mettant aux prises les grands "trust" et le président Roosevelt.

"Le marché a été également influencé par la meilleure tenue du Rio et par des achats très importants de nos valeurs dépréciées pour compte américain.

"Lorsqu'il a été connu jeudi dernier que le conseil de la Banque d'Angleterre avait décidé de maintenir le taux de l'escompte à 4 ½ % au lieu de l'élever à 5 %, comme d'aucuns le prévoyaient, le soulagement a été considérable. Hier, la répercussion de cet évènement a été très heureuse au Stock Exchange, où le marché a débuté en bonne tendance et a continué très ferme jusqu'en clôture.

"Les Consolidés sont de plus en plus rachetés et il est fort probable que les bas cours que nous venons d'avoir ne seront pas revus de longtemps. La tendance est très ferme pour les fonds britanniques aussi bien que pour les étrangers et l'on attend des cours plus élevés. pour la semaine prochaine.

"Les valeurs égyptiennes ont été traitées sur une plus petite échelle que les semaines précédentes et ont subi comme les autres l'atteinte des nouvelles défavorables d'Amérique. Elles finissent néanmoins fermes et en passe de regagner rapidement le terrain perdu.

"Quant au marché monétaire, il est plus calme et l'on s'aperçoit que l'on avait quelque peu exagéré les craintes d'un resserrement nonétaire".

On annonce que la Sidi Salem vient de vendre une partie de ses propriétés à raison de L.E. 100 le feddan. C'est une nouvelle preuve que les terrains en Egypte ont conservé leur valeur, malgré ce qu'en veulent faire accroire nos baissiers.

Eastern Telegraph Co. Ltd. VERAGE TIME occupied in tran

FROM The R. M. 3. M. 43 workers and to express with authority their views and his own on matters affecting his former industry ; but it makes him no more a politician—still less a statesman—than it makes him a physician or an engineer or a skilled practical brewer. Nobody would call in Mr. Keir Hardie to prescribe for him if he were suffering from appendicitis; nobody would ask Mr. Bell, of Derby, or Mr.

Robertson, M.P., to advise him as to the best way of making beer. They have had no training in these matters. No more have they had any training in government; no more have they any knowledge of the many problems which arise when a nation of a higher civilisation leads one used to subjection-not for centuries, but for thousands of years on the path towards peace and prosperity. The more one knows of Lord Cromer's work in Egypt, the more one understands the difficulties under which he worked, the more one appreciates the necessary limitations of his lower, the greater must be one's admiration

for the marvellous results he achieved. Mr.

Scott's book enables you to understand not a few of the difficulties Lord Cromer had to contend with so far as concerned the interference of European Powers other than Great Britain.

The position of every European in Egypt is regulated by the "capitulations." These "capi-tulations" first began to be granted to foreigners

in Egypt by Saladin in the Twelfth Century.

Mr. Scott traces their development from that day to this-when no change can be made in the laws affecting foreigners in Egypt without the consent of fourteen European Powers.

Take an instance of the working of the present arrangements. A tradesman who has been resident in Egypt for many years is accused of murder. He claims to be a Russian subject, is therefore not amenable to the jurisdiction of any Egyptian tribunal. He is handed over to the Russian Consul and is deported to Russia to be tried, say, at Odessa, where, no evidence being forthcoming against him, save written depositions, he is perhaps sentenced to a light punishment, perhaps liberated.

Take another instance of how the "capitula-quoted by Mr. Scott : "It unfortunately happens that at the present time there is a marked increase of rabies. Muzzling orders can, and probably will, be enforced. But the sanitary advisers of the Government are clear that an efficacious adjunct to such an order would be a moderate annual licence tax on dogs: the legal advisers of the Government are equally clear that such a tax could not be effectively enforced against Europeans,"

It is easy for Padgett, M.P. to say "Egypt

of Egypt be as free from foreign control as are the courts and legislatures of every European nation." Padgett, M.P. must first learn a little history, and then acquire a knowledge of the existing facts. Then he may understand that the surrender of privileges by fourteen separate European Powers is not to be had for the asking. Were Egypt able opulation of Egypt are Greeks. Greece will not willingly surrender any privilege, and the attempt to coerce Greece would raise international questions with the larger and stronger Powers in the East of Europe, which would involve retreat or war. Had Britain an Army as well as a Navy, it might impose its will

to the great advantage of Egypt on the fourteen

Eurpean Powers; but so long as the military power of Britain remains contemptible in the eves of every Russian we cannot dream of aiding the freedom of Egypt otherwise than by the slow processes of diplomacy. It is depressing to note the fact that Germany's is progressing by leaps and bounds. A few years ago Germany's trade with Egypt was nil; now it amounts nearly £3,000,000 a year. A few years ago Germany cared nothing about the "capitulations," and now there is a resident population of Germans, increasing year by year, whose interests will not be lost sight of by the Fatherland. Lord for the modification of the "capitulations"

-for the decrease of the power of the fourteen European nations to hamper internal legislation. Mr. Scott's examination of Lord

Cromer's proposals is worth, and will certainly receive, the careful consideration of those responsible for the Government of Egypt. It should also be carefully read by everyone who wishes to hold any intelligent views on the problems of the Land of the

THE ENGLISH IN EGYPT. *

Here is a book about Egypt by a man who speaks with authority says the "Manchester Courier" authority conferred by years of residence and work in Egypt. It is not a mere law-book. It is an important contribution to the history of commerce in Egypt; and, further, it is a practical guide which ought to be in the hands of everyone who owns land or houses in Egypt or has invested in Egyp tian securities of any kind. Every Padgett. M.P., ought to read it. If the hosts of some wandering Oriental gentlemen on a recent occasion had read it they would have talked less nonsense. On that particular occasion the hosts included Messrs. Robertson and Morton, members of Parlament, Sir Thomas Barclay, of Paris (who seems to pose as a sort of commercial Dugald Dalgetty-though he is only a solicitor), and sundry others even less known to fame or notoriety: the guests were equally unimportant. These inter-tribal mutual advertisement functions are becoming merely a public nuisance. They obtain a passing notoriety for hosts and guests only through the lack of knowledge on the part of the sub-editors of newspapers. If Mr. Scott's book were read and digested by those mysterious persons who decree what is to be reported and what is to be ignored, we should not be invited to waste our time in reading the uninformed outpouring of Oriental speculators "on the job" -of disappointed seekers of minor administrative offices, of would-be politicians who have failed to find appreciation for their talents at home. and hope by the advertisement of a report of their crude speeches in English journals to pose as leaders of Egyptian thought. The problem of the government of Egypt is much more difficult than Mr. Robertson, M.P., imagines. He has spent a fortnight in Egypt, and knows all about a land whose inhabitants were skilled manufacturers and supremeartists in sculpture and architecture thousands of years before his forbears had discovered the art of painting their bodies blue. We have all much to learn, but some of us are more modest than others. Mr. Robertson finds a fortnight enough for Egypt: Mr. Keir Hardie is devoting exactly the same amount of time to studying all the problems of India! What should we think of the opinions of a Chinaman, ignorant of any European tongue, who travelled in a fortnight from Moscow to London, via Berlin, Vienna, and Paris, and set himself up as an authority on the conditions of life, of commerce, and of agriculture in Europe ? That, however, is exactly the position which Mr. Keir Hardie is now a civilised nation, abolish the capiproposes to assume. Ignorance makes a man tulations, and let the courts and legislature conceited-a little knowledge makes him arrogant, more knowledge makes him humble. Now, as a corrective to people like Mr. Robertson, M.P., and to all the other Labour members who think that because they know a little more than they did last year they have discovered all knowledge, let Mr. Scott's book be recommended. Let all of them, at any rate, who desire to use Egyptas the stalking horse of their to convince the fourteen European Powers personal advertisement, read this historical that her own judiciary was firmly establirecord of what has been, and this lucid state- shed on a basis of learning, independence, ment of what is, written by a lawyer, not by and incorruptibility, some of the privileges a politician, and they will begin to recognise the subjects of foreign Powers enjoy might that they have still much study before them. be surrendered. But it must be remember-Mr. Scott writes as a jurist with a full sense ed that a large proportion of the foreign of the responsibility of one of his calling, inhabitants of Egypt belong to small na-Accuracy of statement, the constant reference, tions-e.g. 33.94 per cent of the European to authority for every fact adduced, the expectation that his book will be without flaw and will remain a permanent work of authority, have been constantly in his mind. It is not a record of opinion. It is an ordered logical and lucid statement of fact. When he gives us an opinion of his own, it is stated as is the charge of a judge to a jury. He weighs the evidence for and against, and leaves us to agree with him or not, as our varying degree of intelligence may decide. Nobody has any right to hold, still less to express, any opinion on the present condition and future prospects of Egypt who has not mastered, at least, all Lord Cromer's annual reports, Lord Milner's fascina trade, with a consequent interest in Egypt, ting book, Sir Auckland Coburn's more recent work, and Mr. Scott's "Foreigner in Egypt." Then, after a year or two in the country, a man may have a right to express an opinion. Politics is a science, just as chemistry or medicine. The fact that a man has been taken from his ordinary avocation as a railway guard, or a stonemason, or a miner, and made a member of the House of Commons, entitles | Cromer's latest legacy to Egypt was a scheme him, no doubt, to represent his former co-

* "The Law Affecting Foreigners in Egypt." By James Harry Scott, B.A. LL.M., Advocate, Lecturer at the Khedivial School of Law, Cairo. Edinburgh:

THE LATEST "CURE" FOR SEA-SICKNESS.

The latest expounder of an infallible cure is a German doctor, who has made the discovery that sea-sickness has nothing whatever to do with the stomach, and that to gird oneself with tight belts is the height of folly. He declares that the trouble is due to action on the blood and that the oscillations of the boat make the heart beat unequally, and thus send to the brain at one time too much blood, and at another time too little. The head is the part affected, and not the stomach, so that the true remedy for nausea is to compress the neck. This is all very well, says "The Globe," but compression of the neck has been known to produce worse results than seasickness, and it will therefore be well for sufferers to be moderate in the application of the "oure."

American Futures. The market this week has been quiet in tone and prices have had frequent but less important fluctuations, today's closing values being 41 @ 51 points higher than those of last Thursday.

There has been very little information about the Crop and that has been somewhat contradictory in character; there has undoubtedly been a some rainfall in Texas, but not a general break up of the hot and dry conditions. The Market has also been largely under the influence of the financial position and the weakness of the Stock and Share markets both here and in America. The Bureau report for this month is, not, we understand, to be issued until the 9th of next month, instead of the 3rd proximo, the usual date; for what reason this change of date is made we do not know.

SOLOMON'S TEMPLE.

ITS HISTORY AND ITS STRUCTURE.

(By the Rev W. Shew Caldacott. Religious Tract Society. 6/-.) The Rev. Shaw Caldecott has followed up his book. "The Tabernacle" with an interesting volume on the Temple of Solomon. The subject is dealt with in a most thorough manner, and the book is illustrated, in addition to which a folded plan of the temple is given. Mr Caldecott in his introduction draws attention to the fact that the Bible is not a book of history but a book of religion, the Old Testament containing nothing with regard to the question of population, agriculture, commerce etc; which are necessary to the true history of a nation. Monumental records were used in the East from the earliest times, and there remains a good deal to be done yet in the way of exploration and research to solve the many problems which present themselves to scientists and anchaeologists. Dr Sayce, in a preface which he has contributed to this book, emphasizes the importance of systematic excavations being made throughout Egypt and Pelestine. He also attaches great weight to the evidence which Mr. Caldecott produces, to show that the Temple in common with other temples built throughout Western and Central Asia, was built upon an artificial platform, in order to raise the building above the great rivers. The care which has been given in the description of the Temple, its architecture, ornamentation, and its measurements, should make this book of great value to bible students.

Breathless and Quite Bloodless. The Victim of Her Nerves.

A Vigorous Woman To-day.

in Perfect Health; oured by

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.

"I do not think my constitution was ever very strong, but when I had an attack of Influenza three years ago it left me in a distressing state of weakness." This experience of Mrs. Amy Harlow, of Shipbourne Green, near Tonbridge, Kent, is that of thousands who find themselves reduced by Influenza's ravages to an acute debility defying all treatment. Mrs. Harlow came through a wasting illness to the pink of health, solely because in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People she found an abundant supply of new good red blood.

"Owing to that terrible weakness," she said. my hands shook like those of an old woman, so that I could not thread a needle. Then after any exertion my breath came in short gasps and my heart throbbed violently like an over worked engine, especially when I walked upstairs, or went uphill. Sometimes at night it seemed as if my heart was bursting, I could not THESE WERE lie down with any comfort, HER SYMPTOMS. and had to sit propped up in bed to ease the palpitations. Then I felt acute, bewildering pains in my head; as time went on these grew worse. Eating was a misery. sharp, stabbing pains tore through my back between the shoulder blades, and often I was prostrated by biliousness. I could not touch breakfast, and my mid-day meal was followed by a heavy, uncomfortable feeling with spasms. I grew very thin and pale, my eyes were sunken, and, indeed, so poor and dejected was I that a doctor feared I would go into consumption. A hacking, hollow cough, constant spitting, breathlessness, and a feeling of weariness which made life a burden, seemed to confirm these fears. Giddy and nervous as I was I could scarcely drag myself about the house.

"These many troubles made me miserable and irritable, and though worn out I could not sleep at night. Then a succession of terrible abscesses afflicted me, and I wondered how it would all end.

"I had been suffering like this for a year, when a friend advised me to try Dr. William's Pink Pills for Pale People, and I decided to do so as a last resource. To my surprise before long I felt an improvement. took food without discomfort and could digest it. From that time my improvement was steady. My pains, sickness and cough left me, and in their place
